At some point, every homeowner is going to have to hire a contractor. Every homeowner needs a copy of this book. Don t let your money become part of the billions of dollars lost annually to contractor fraud and scams. Think you know all about the scams that contractors run on homeowners? Don t be so sure. Con artist contractors are constantly crafting new ways to steal you blind. Let this step-by-step guide help you navigate your home repair, rebuild or remodel project, regardless of where you are in the process! Get it now so you will have it when you need it. Learn how to find good contractors, how to check them out, the building permitting process, insurance issues you may not know about, what should and should not be in your contract, how to set up payment schedules to protect your money, how not to get ripped off and a whole lot more! I wish I had this book before I lost over $5000 to a con artist that seemed like a really nice guy. This book has empowered me to avoid making that mistake again. GREAT information! Thanks! S. Cooper I m so embarrassed that I got ripped off. I thought I knew how to handle the contractor, figured it was common sense. This book made me realize that I didn t know much at all. Hard lesson to learn, but I m glad I now have the knowledge to match my ego! Thanks Phae!...
