The teacher is chagrined by the want of positiveness in the answers of his class, and the pupils are greatly agitated from lack of confidence in themselves. Your Committee, in their quarterly examinations, during the summer, heard recitations which, for smoothness and thoroughness, far surpassed the performances of classes of the same grade at the late examination. These embarrassments would be obviated could the annual examination occur at the close of the Spring quarter. To such a change, your Committee can see no serious objection, and they would, therefore, recommend that, hereafter, the Annual Examination take place at that time. Manner Of Conducting The Examination. Your Committee felt it to be very important that they should have a correct standard by which to measure the attainments and progress of our schools, - neither too high nor too low. A recitation might not reach the expectation of the examiner, and yet be fully up to the average of acquirement among children of the same age in other schools. Your Committee, therefore, devoted several days to visiting schools of the same grade in Boston, that they might be better prepared to form a just judgment of the comparative proficiency of our own. In order that the pupils...
