Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Economics, Descriptive and Theoretical: Part I. Descriptive; Part II. Theoretical This book is intended for the highest form in schools, and also for undergraduates and other adult students who want to read a simple text-book giving a brief outline of the whole subject, before they proceed to the more elaborate treatment of such writers as Professor Marshall and Mr. J. A. Hobson. It is hoped that it may be useful to students who select Political Economy as one of the subjects for the Oxford or Cambridge Higher Local Examinations, and for the Examination of the Society of Arts and similar bodies. It also contains a certain amount of material not usually found even in more detailed text-books of economics, which makes it specially suitable for use in girls schools, particularly those which propose to develop the scientific study of housekeeping, and of the economic relations between the household and society, on the methods which have been adopted in King s College for Women, where both the authors are lecturers. The adolescent mind finds always a...
