I had a dream, Magdalena Roush whispered. But this reality is something else. Two years ago she d left Mescal Flats, N. M. to go East and seek her physician certificate. Now Lena has returned, full of high hopes to establish her doctor s office and show her girlhood love, cowboy Theron Barnes, ten years older than she, how she s all grown up. She s returned home, but she s not prepared for the challenge of being confronted by an angry midwife and warned not to steal the woman s patients. She s devastated when Theron raises an invisible wall between himself and the town s new lady doctor. Her disillusionment is complete when she loses her first patient, a teenaged burn victim. Where have all her dreams disappeared to? Can Lena find them again?.
